VERY FEW CONTESTS IN NORFOLK ELECTION

IN NORFOLK ELECTION

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Norfolk, Vs., April 24--With only one independent candidate for the Board of Control and only four for the City Council against the "administration," or "organization." ticket, the highest vote in years is predicted for the Democratic municipal primary to be held Tuesday.

There are two places to be filed on the Board of Control, for which there are three cardinates. Robert Johnson, former member of the body, and now an independent candidate, is opposing W. M. Hannan for the six-year term. T. S. Purdle, who is up for re-election for the two-year term, is without opposition and his name will not appear on the ticket.

For the City Council and Board of Aldermen, there are only four independent candidates for the twenty-seven places to be filled. The independent are A. S. J. Jakeman against J. T. Regebein, in the Fifth Ward alermain race, John J. Kelley, in the Founth Ward councilmanic race, C. H. Perry, in the Fifth Ward councilmanic concest, than N. F. O'Dea, in the Sixth Ward Council race.

There are no contests in the First, Second, Third, Seventh and Eighth Wards.

Indictment Against County Commis-sioners Is Dropped.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Washington, N. C., April 24.—A mass-neeting of citizens of Washington and meeting of citizens of Washington and Beaufort county, called by agreement between the solicitor of this district and the board of county commissioners, was held in the courthouse in this city yesterday, for the purpose of determining whether the bill of indictment. Frought in against the commissioners, for failing to provide a better courthouse, at the last term of Beaufort County Superior Court should be prosecuted. The courthouse was filled to overflowing, and a great deal of interest was exhibited. Solicitor H. of interest was exhibited. Solicitor H. S. Ward spoke to the assembly for something over an hour on the matter in question.

As a result of the meeting the proceedings against the board of com-missioners will not be pressed, and the matter is left open as before.
